Open Response Questions

Please use the following section to provide more feedback about the TA.

11

What was your overall opinion of the TA's efforts? State weaknesses and strengths.

(Text/Memo)

- Overall, Stephanie was a great TA and really facilitated group conversations well. She was very clear of what she expected from everyone and knew what she was talking about!
- Stephanie was a really good TA. With the nature of this course, she was really good about helping facilitate discussions that were more difficult to speak about for people.
- I think she did a fantastic job of running the class and had no weaknesses when explaining content.
- I think Stephanie did a great job creating a safe space for discussion throughout this course. She always brought a high level of energy that encouraged participation.
- Stephanie was a great TA. She demonstrated respect towards all the students and was very helpful.
- Put lots of effort and hard work into making sure we had a good discussion. Exam review could have been a bit more thorough for Exam 3.
- Stephanie was great! Does so well being inclusive and adjusting to make everyone successful and comfortable. One of my favorite discussions ever, so thought provoking.
- definitely had a vested interest in the material, the course structure, and students knowledge of the material and participation. caring about all of these things was a definite strength and made discussions a good environment
- Stephanie is a great TA! Oftentimes I was underwhelmed with the overall structure of the course, but that was obviously out of her control and she did the best she could to make the class adaptive and interesting.
- I think Stephanie was an amazing TA. Very knowledgeable and energetic. Easy to talk to and organized.
- Strengths: Stephanie handled difficult topics with care. She was sensitive to letting everyone be heard and fostering open-mindedness. She responded to email promptly and she was never arrogant or condescending. She responded beautifully when I mentioned that one of the topics was triggering to me. Her compassion and psychotherapeutic knowledge are great to have in this class. Stephanie could understand what each student was saying and translate it for everyone to understand. She could connect our points to the bigger picture and she facilitated a safe, open place for her students to share. Weaknesses: Stephanie sometimes presented self-consciousness that I felt got in the way of her excellent teaching skills. Sometimes the class just won't respond but it isn't a reflection of your teaching. For the trickier topics, its important to have a confident leader in the front of the room. No need to be apologetic. We signed up for the class and we are paying to learn what you have to teach us! Overall, Stephanie was an incredible T.A. I learned just by watching how she carried herself and interacted with students.

- Stephanie was always punctual and available/accommodating whenever I needed help.
- She was always on time and available for any help if needed!
- Yes! Always on time and available for extra help.
- Stephanie always arrived promptly to our classes. She also was really good about communicating with us. If anything in the course changed or she was unable to hold in-person classes for some reason, she was very good about letting us all know immediately.

If the TA had responsibility for assignments such as exams or lab reports, please comment on the fairness in grading, promptness in returning exams, adequacy of feedback, etc.

(Text/Memo)

- The grading was fair and prompt.
- Stephanie was a fair grader for all assignments.
- We only turned in 3 assignments (2 participation and 1 paper) so I don't have a great sample size to judge by. I thought papers could've been returned more quickly.
- I have received prompt feedback for all my assignments except for my paper, so that is good.
- Fair grading as of 4/26. Appreciate her promptness in grading.
- We haven't gotten the essays back yet so I can't say how fair or prompt I think the grading was.
- Grading has been fair and prompt.
- As of now, we have not received our grades back for the paper that she is grading for us. However, it was only due a few weeks ago, and I would assume that Stephanie has many papers to grade on top of her work outside of TAing. However, on smaller assignments, Stephanie was always very good about giving our grades back quickly.
- I think she was very fair.

(Text/Memo)

- I thought that the climate of the classroom was very non judgemental and a safe space to talk about ideas surrounding sexuality.
- I think Stephanie did a great job and I learned so much from her!
- N/A
- our class was a little quiet sometimes, but individual class climate can be random depending on the individuals within it, i would say it is not necessarily a reflection on the instructors at all
